WHEREAS, Service Provider offers administrative contractual services (“Services”) to facilitate rent protection by making direct payment commitments using its own funds;

WHEREAS, Landlord desires to engage Service Provider’s Services to obtain protection against Tenant’s potential default, and Service Provider agrees to provide such services under the terms of this Agreement;

WHEREAS, the parties expressly acknowledge that this Agreement is a private contractual arrangement and does not constitute insurance, a guarantee, surety bond, or any form of regulated financial product;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements contained herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE I – DEFINITIONS

For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings set forth below:

1.1 Lease. The written lease agreement executed between Landlord and Tenant covering the Property, including all amendments, extensions, or renewals thereof, which sets forth Tenant’s rental obligations.

1.2 Property. The real property subject to the Lease, located at [REDACTED], together with any improvements, common areas, and appurtenant rights.

1.3 Tenant Default under the Lease. Any one or more of the following events under the Lease:

- (a) Failure by Tenant to pay rent or any other monetary obligation when due;
- (b) Failure by Tenant to surrender possession of the Property upon expiration or termination of the Lease;
- (c) Abandonment of the Property by Tenant;
- (d) Breach of any material covenant under the Lease;
- (f) Tenant's insolvency, bankruptcy filing, or assignment for the benefit of creditors.

1.4 Holdover. Tenant's continued possession of the Property after expiration or termination of the Lease without Landlord's consent.

1.5 Claim. A valid notification submitted by Landlord to Service Provider through www.grenty.us pursuant to this Agreement, alleging a Tenant Default and requesting payment.

1.6 Effective Date. The date first written above on which this Agreement becomes binding on the parties.

1.7 Service Fee. The consideration payable to Service Provider by the contracting party (usually the Landlord), as specified in Article VI.

1.8 Eviction Proceedings. Any statutory or judicial process to recover possession of the Property from Tenant, including service of statutory notices, filing of lawsuits, hearings, judgments, writs of possession, and physical removal of Tenant.

1.9 Subrogation Rights. All rights, claims, and remedies of Landlord against Tenant, automatically assigned to Service Provider upon each payment made by Service Provider under this Agreement.

1.10 Force Majeure Event. An event beyond the reasonable control of Service Provider, including but not limited to fire, hurricane, flood, pandemic, government order, court closure, or any circumstance making it illegal or impossible to perform obligations hereunder.

ARTICLE II – NATURE OF SERVICE

2.1 Nature of Agreement. This Agreement constitutes a private contractual arrangement for the provision of the Services by Service Provider to Landlord. It is expressly understood and agreed by all parties that this Agreement is not, and shall not be construed as, an insurance policy, a surety bond, a financial guaranty, or any other regulated product. Service Provider is not licensed by any Department of Insurance, nor does it act as an insurer, guarantor, co-debtor, or surety of Tenant's obligations.

2.2 Service Funds. All payments under this Agreement are made exclusively with Service Provider's own funds, without the creation of reserves, mutualization of risks, or the collection of premiums. The service fee paid by Landlord represents solely the consideration for the administrative service provided herein and not the payment of any insurance premium.

2.3 Waiver of Claims. Landlord expressly acknowledges and accepts the nature of this Agreement and waives any right to assert that the services provided hereunder constitute insurance, surety, or a regulated financial product.

ARTICLE III - SERVICES AND OBLIGATIONS

3.1 Service Provider's Obligations. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Service Provider shall pay rent to Landlord within ten (10) business days of a valid Claim, pay rent to Landlord in the case of Tenant Holdover, and, if it so elects, pay reasonable eviction costs.

3.2 Landlord's Obligations. Landlord shall notify Service Provider of Tenant Defaults exclusively through www.grenty.us within ten (10) days of unpaid rent, fifteen (15) days of Holdover, or fifteen (15) days of abandonment.

If Landlord submits notification for any unpaid rent that is more than ten (10) but less than thirty (30) days past due at the time of notification, Service Provider may, at its sole discretion, provide the Services. If Landlord submits notification for any unpaid rent that is more than thirty (30) days past due at the time of notification, Service Provider's obligations under this Agreement for that default shall be void and Service Provider shall have no obligation to make any payments for such default.

Landlord shall provide all supporting documentation, shall not initiate eviction without coordination, shall cooperate fully with Service Provider in eviction or collection proceedings, and shall promptly report and remit any direct payment received from Tenant after Service Provider has paid to Landlord.

3.3 Tenant's Obligations. Tenant shall remain fully liable for all obligations under the Lease, reimburse Service Provider for any payments made on Tenant's behalf, pay applicable interest and collection costs, and cooperate in eviction or collection proceedings.

ARTICLE IV – SCOPE OF PROTECTION

4.1 Protected Items. The Services are limited exclusively to: (a) monthly rent due under the Lease; (b) default interest or late fees not exceeding the legal maximum; and (c) reasonable eviction costs, but only if Service Provider elects to pursue eviction.

4.2 Holdover. In the event of a Tenant Holdover, Service Provider shall pay to Landlord an amount equal to the last monthly rental payment under the Lease, calculated on a pro rata daily basis where applicable, until actual restitution of the Property to Landlord with delivery of keys and vacant possession, subject to the following conditions: (a) holdover protection shall not exceed one hundred eighty (180) consecutive days per subscription term; (b) if holdover extends beyond 180 days and into a renewal term with fresh protection limits, Service Provider may continue providing the Services at its discretion; (c) Landlord must initiate formal eviction proceedings within fifteen (15) days of Lease termination or Service Provider may suspend holdover payments; and (d) Landlord must provide monthly status updates on eviction proceedings through the platform. Service Provider reserves the right to take over eviction proceedings directly if Landlord's efforts are deemed insufficient.

4.3 Exclusions. The Services shall not extend to: security deposits of any kind; utilities and related services including but not limited to water, electricity, gas, internet, cable, telephone, landscaping, or pool maintenance; costs of repairs or damages to the Property, whether structural or cosmetic, whether arising from wear and tear, negligence, accidents, vandalism, or acts of God; association fees, community charges, homeowner or condominium assessments; fines, penalties, punitive damages, or administrative sanctions of any nature; early termination fees, buyout clauses, or cancellation penalties; consequential, indirect, or loss-of-profits damages; obligations arising from Lease amendments, modifications, extensions, or private payment arrangements between Landlord and Tenant not previously disclosed to and approved in writing by Service Provider; any defaults occurring prior to the Effective Date of this Agreement; and any claims arising from Force Majeure Events or government actions, including but not limited to natural disasters, pandemics, evacuations, condemnation, or eminent domain.

4.4 Exclusion for Accumulated Defaults. The Services shall not apply where more than one month's rent is past due at the time of initial notification to Service Provider. The Services apply only to defaults reported within thirty (30) days of occurrence. Multiple months of accumulated unpaid rent, regardless of when they accrued, void the services under this Agreement if not timely reported as each payment became due. This exclusion is absolute and cannot be waived.

ARTICLE V – SUBROGATION AND EVICTION

5.1 Subrogation. Upon each payment made by Service Provider to Landlord under this Agreement, Service Provider shall be automatically and immediately subrogated to all rights, claims, and remedies that Landlord may have against Tenant with respect to the amounts paid. Such subrogation shall occur by operation of this Agreement without the need for further assignment or documentation. Landlord agrees to execute any additional instruments reasonably requested by Service Provider to evidence or perfect such subrogation.

5.2 Scope of Subrogation. The subrogation rights of Service Provider shall include, without limitation, the right to demand payment from Tenant, commence or continue collection actions, recover possession of the Property, pursue eviction, and recover costs and expenses related to Tenant Defaults. Service Provider may enforce such rights in its own name or in the name of Landlord, at its sole discretion.

5.3 Eviction Authority. Service Provider shall have the exclusive authority, but not the obligation, to determine whether eviction proceedings shall be initiated against Tenant following a Tenant Default. If Service Provider elects to pursue eviction, it may do so in the name of Landlord as attorney-in-fact or in its own name pursuant to its subrogated rights. Landlord shall not independently commence eviction proceedings without prior written consent from Service Provider. If Landlord initiates eviction proceedings without Service Provider's prior written consent, this Agreement shall automatically terminate, Service Provider shall have no further payment obligations to Landlord, and all amounts previously paid by Service Provider shall become immediately due and payable by Tenant to Service Provider with all collection rights intact.

5.4 Power of Attorney. Landlord hereby irrevocably appoints Service Provider as its lawful attorney-in-fact with full authority to prepare, sign, and file notices, pleadings, complaints, affidavits, judgments, writs of possession, and any other documents necessary to prosecute eviction proceedings and enforce Landlord's rights against Tenant, including but not limited to court appearances and settlement negotiations. This power of attorney is coupled with an interest and shall be irrevocable until all obligations of Tenant under the Lease that fall within the scope of this Agreement have been satisfied.

5.5 Duty of Cooperation. Landlord shall cooperate fully with Service Provider in connection with any collection or eviction action, including but not limited to providing testimony, access to records, and execution of documents reasonably required to enforce Tenant's obligations. Failure by Landlord to cooperate shall relieve Service Provider of any obligation to continue making payments under this Agreement.

5.6 Tenant Acknowledgment. Tenant acknowledges and agrees that Service Provider has the right to enforce Landlord's rights by subrogation and by virtue of this Agreement. Tenant expressly waives any defense, claim, or objection based on lack of contractual privity with Service Provider.

5.7 Recovery of Payments. Any amounts recovered from Tenant through subrogation or eviction proceedings, whether by judgment, settlement, or voluntary payment, shall be retained by Service Provider to the extent of payments previously made to Landlord under this Agreement. Any surplus recovered above such amounts shall be remitted to Landlord.

ARTICLE VI – SERVICE FEES AND COMPENSATION

6.1 Designation of Paying Party. At execution of this Agreement, the parties shall designate who will be responsible for payment of the Service Fee by marking the applicable option below with an “X”:

- ☐ Landlord-Paid Fee: Landlord shall be solely responsible for payment of the Service Fee.
- ☐ Tenant-Paid Fee: Tenant shall be solely responsible for payment of the Service Fee.

The selection above shall be controlling for all purposes of this Agreement.

6.2 General Obligation. In consideration of the services provided under this Agreement, the designated paying party (or parties) shall pay to Service Provider a service fee (the “Service Fee”) in the amount of $, payable annually, as agreed in writing. The Service Fee is due in advance, non-refundable once paid, and fully earned upon receipt by Service Provider, regardless of whether Tenant defaults, the Lease terminates early, or protection under this Agreement is otherwise unused.

6.3 Payment by Landlord. If Landlord is the designated paying party, Landlord shall pay the Service Fee no later than the first (1st) day of the applicable service period. Upon Landlord’s failure to timely pay: (a) Service Provider shall send an automated payment failure notice through the platform; (b) Service Provider’s obligations under this Agreement are automatically suspended effective on the fifth (5th) day following the due date; (c) if payment is not received within fifteen (15) days of the due date, Service Provider may terminate this Agreement upon written notice; and (d) any claims submitted during the suspension period shall not fall within the scope of protection of the Services, even if payment is subsequently made. At the discretion of the Service Provider, the Services shall resume within twenty-four (24) hours of payment receipt, but only for defaults occurring after payment clearance.

6.4 Payment by Tenant. If Tenant is the designated paying party, Tenant shall pay the Service Fee no later than the first (1st) day of the applicable service period. Upon Tenant’s failure to timely pay: (a) Service Provider shall send an automated payment failure notice through the platform to both Tenant and Landlord; (b) Service Provider’s protection obligations are automatically suspended effective on the fifth (5th) day following the due date; (c) if payment is not received within fifteen (15) days of the due date, Service Provider may terminate this Agreement upon written notice to all parties; and (d) any defaults occurring during the suspension period shall not fall within the scope of protection of the Services, even if payment is subsequently made. At the discretion of the Service Provider, the Services shall resume within twenty-four (24) hours of payment receipt, but only for defaults occurring after payment clearance.

6.5 Method of Payment. All Service Fees shall be paid by ACH, wire transfer, credit card, or such other method as Service Provider may approve in writing. The paying party shall be responsible for all transaction fees, bank charges, or administrative costs related to payment.

6.6 Late Fees. Any Service Fee not paid when due shall accrue interest at the lesser of (i) ten percent (10%) per annum, or (ii) the maximum rate permitted by applicable law, until paid in full.

6.7 Returned or Rejected Payments. If any payment of the Service Fee is returned, rejected, or reversed due to insufficient funds, closed account, chargeback, or for any other reason, the paying party shall remain fully liable for the Service Fee as if no payment had been made. In addition, the paying party shall pay to Service Provider an administrative fee of $50.00 (or the maximum amount permitted by applicable law, if less) for each returned payment, together with any bank charges or processing costs incurred by Service Provider. All such amounts shall be immediately due and payable, and failure to promptly cure shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement.

ARTICLE VII – TERM AND RENEWAL

7.1 Initial Term. This Agreement shall remain in effect for the duration of the Lease, commencing on the Effective Date and terminating upon expiration or earlier termination of the Lease, unless otherwise terminated in accordance with this Article.

7.2 Automatic Renewal. Upon expiration of the Initial Term, this Agreement shall automatically renew for successive one-year periods, unless the paying party designated in Article VI (Landlord or Tenant, as applicable) provides written notice of non-renewal to Service Provider at least forty-five (45) days prior to the expiration date, in compliance with applicable automatic renewal laws.

Renewal Contingent on Payment. Automatic renewal is contingent upon timely payment of the annual Service Fee on or before the first day of the renewal term. If payment is not received by the due date, the Agreement shall not automatically renew and protection shall lapse.

Late Payment After Renewal Date. If the paying party attempts to make the annual payment after the renewal date has passed: (a) Service Provider reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to accept or reject such late payment and renewal; (b) Service Provider may require, as a condition of accepting late payment, proof of all rent payments for the preceding three (3) months and current month; (c) if Service Provider accepts the late payment, the Services shall commence only from the date of acceptance, with no retroactive application to any period between the original renewal date and acceptance; and (d) any defaults occurring before Service Provider's written acceptance of late payment shall not fall within the scope of protection of the Services. Service Provider's acceptance of any late payment shall not obligate it to accept future late payments.

7.3 Automatic Billing. Upon each automatic renewal, Service Provider is expressly authorized to charge or debit the Service Fee for the renewal term using the same payment method most recently provided by the designated paying party, unless a different valid payment method is furnished in writing prior to renewal. The paying party agrees that continued participation in the program constitutes authorization for such automatic billing.

7.4 Termination by Service Provider. Service Provider may terminate this Agreement only upon the occurrence of the following:

(a) failure of the designated paying party to pay the Service Fee when due (including failure to cure a returned or rejected payment under Section 6.8);

(b) material breach by Landlord of its obligations under this Agreement, including but not limited to:

- submission of false or fraudulent claims
- failure to provide required notifications within specified timeframes
- acceptance of unauthorized direct payments from Tenant after Service Activation
- failure to cooperate in eviction or collection proceedings
- material misrepresentation in the application or claim process
- failure to maintain accurate information in the platform
- initiating unauthorized eviction proceedings

(c) Landlord's negligence or willful misconduct, including:

- failure to maintain the Property in habitable condition leading to constructive eviction
- violation of applicable landlord-tenant laws
- failure to mitigate damages when required
- actions that impair Service Provider's subrogation or collection rights

(e) repeated breaches (three or more) of Agreement terms within any twelve-month period after written notice; or

(f) any action by Landlord that exposes Service Provider to regulatory sanctions or legal liability.

Service Provider must provide thirty (30) days written notice of termination.

7.5 Termination by Landlord. Landlord may terminate this Agreement after the Initial Term by providing sixty (60) days' prior written notice to Service Provider, regardless of whether Landlord is the designated paying party under Article VI. If Landlord is not the paying party, Landlord must coordinate with Tenant to ensure proper termination notice and cessation of payments. No refund of prepaid Service Fees shall be provided for early termination.

7.6 Termination by Tenant. Tenant hereby accepts and acknowledges that it does not have the right to unilaterally terminate this Agreement. Even if Tenant is the designated paying party, Tenant's cessation of payment shall constitute breach rather than termination.

7.7 Automatic Termination. This Agreement shall also terminate automatically upon termination of the Lease and completion of any holdover period, unless renewed.

7.8 Suspension of the Services. Service Provider may suspend the Services immediately upon any missed, returned, or delinquent Service Fee payment until such default is cured.

7.9 Survival. Termination of this Agreement shall not affect Service Provider's rights to collect amounts from Tenant, to pursue subrogation, or to enforce obligations of Landlord or Tenant that expressly survive termination.

ARTICLE VIII – REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

8.1 Landlord's Representations. Landlord represents and warrants that:

(a) all information provided to Service Provider in connection with this Agreement and the Lease is true, accurate, and complete in all material respects;

(b) Landlord has the full right, power, and authority to enter into this Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder;

(c) the Property is legally rentable, complies with applicable laws and regulations, and is free from conditions that would prevent lawful occupation by Tenant;

(d) Landlord has the technical capability to access and use Service Provider's online platform (www.grenty.us) and will do so in accordance with this Agreement;

(e) Landlord will maintain accurate and current contact information at all times in its platform profile to ensure receipt of notices, communications, and updates; and

(f) any misrepresentation, omission, or concealment of material facts shall constitute a material breach and grounds for immediate termination of this Agreement and denial of protection under the Services.

8.2 Tenant's Representations. Tenant represents and warrants that:

(a) no bankruptcy, insolvency, or similar proceeding is pending or threatened against Tenant;

(b) all information provided to Service Provider in connection with this Agreement and the Lease is true, correct, and complete in all material respects;

(c) Tenant understands and accepts the obligations imposed by this Agreement, which are in addition to, and not in substitution of, obligations under the Lease; and

(d) Tenant's execution of this Agreement does not and will not conflict with or violate any other agreement to which Tenant is a party.

8.3 Service Provider's Representations. Service Provider represents and warrants that:

- (a) it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of the State of Florida;
- (b) it maintains sufficient funds to meet its obligations under this Agreement at the time of execution;
- (c) it acts solely as a private contractual service provider and not as an insurer, guarantor, or surety; and
- (d) it shall perform its obligations in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner.

ARTICLE IX – BREACH OF THIS AGREEMENT AND REMEDIES

9.1 Scope. For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of this Article IX apply solely to breaches of this Agreement by any party hereto. These breaches are distinct from “Tenant Defaults” under the Lease, which are governed by Article I and may trigger Service Provider’s obligations under this Agreement.

9.2 Events of Breach. The following shall constitute a breach of this Agreement by Landlord or Tenant:

- (a) failure of Landlord or Tenant, as applicable, to timely pay the Service Fee or cure any returned or rejected payment;
- (b) failure of Landlord to notify Service Provider of a Tenant Default within the timeframes required by this Agreement;
- (c) failure of Landlord to maintain accurate and current contact information in the platform or to access and use the platform as required;
- (d) failure of Tenant to reimburse Service Provider for payments made on Tenant’s behalf, including collection costs, late fees, or default interest;
- (e) breach by either Landlord or Tenant of any other material obligation under this Agreement; or
- (f) any material misrepresentation or concealment of information provided to Service Provider.

9.3 Events of Breach by Service Provider. The following shall constitute a breach of this Agreement by Service Provider:

- (a) failure to make payments within the scope of protection of the Services to Landlord within ten (10) business days after receipt of a complete and compliant notification through the platform, provided that no exclusions apply;

(b) wrongful denial of a valid claim that meets all Agreement requirements and falls within the scope of protection of the Services;

(c) failure to maintain the platform in a reasonably operational state for more than seventy-two (72) consecutive hours without providing alternative claim submission methods;

(d) material misuse of confidential information provided by Landlord or Tenant; or

(e) failure to perform any other material obligation under this Agreement, provided that such failure continues for fifteen (15) days after written notice from the affected party.

9.4 Remedies for Landlord or Tenant Breach. Upon the occurrence of a breach of this Agreement, Service Provider may, in its sole discretion and without prejudice to any other rights available at law or equity:

(a) suspend Services under this Agreement until such breach is cured;

(b) terminate this Agreement immediately upon written notice;

(c) declare all unpaid Service Fees, returned payment charges, late fees, and reimbursable costs immediately due and payable;

(d) pursue collection actions directly against the responsible party; and

(e) recover reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs, and administrative expenses incurred in connection with enforcement.

9.5 Remedies for Service Provider Breach. Upon Service Provider's breach, the affected party's remedies shall be limited to:

(a) in the case of non-payment of a valid claim, Landlord may pursue standard collection remedies against Tenant as if this Agreement did not exist, and Service Provider shall have no subrogation rights for that specific default;

(b) termination of this Agreement upon thirty (30) days written notice, provided that Service Provider's obligations for claims properly submitted before termination shall survive;

(c) actual damages directly resulting from the breach for the applicable term; and

(d) in cases of repeated breach after written notice, reasonable attorneys' fees actually incurred, subject to court approval.

9.6 Cumulative Remedies. The rights and remedies provided herein are cumulative and not exclusive, and the exercise of one shall not preclude the exercise of any other.

ARTICLE X – GENERAL PROVISIONS

10.1 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida, without regard to its conflict of laws provisions.

10.2 Jurisdiction and Venue. The parties irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the state and federal courts located in Miami-Dade County, Florida, for the resolution of any dispute, claim, or controversy arising out of or relating to this Agreement, the Lease, or the relationship of the parties.

At Service Provider's sole election, any dispute, controversy, or claim arising under or relating to this Agreement may instead be submitted to binding arbitration before the American Arbitration Association (AAA) in Miami-Dade County, Florida, in accordance with its Commercial Arbitration Rules. Judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator(s) may be entered in any court having jurisdiction.

Landlord and Tenant shall jointly and severally indemnify, defend, and hold harmless Service Provider and its affiliates, officers, directors, managers, employees, and agents from and against any and all claims, demands, damages, losses, liabilities, costs, and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs) arising out of or relating to: (a) any misrepresentation, breach, or failure to perform under this Agreement or the Lease; (b) any claim that Service Provider is acting as an insurer, guarantor, or surety; and (c) any action or omission of Landlord or Tenant in connection with the Property or the Lease.

10.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior negotiations, understandings, and agreements, whether written or oral.

10.8 Amendments. No amendment, modification, or waiver of this Agreement shall be effective unless in writing and executed by all parties.

10.9 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is held invalid or unenforceable, such invalidity shall not affect the remaining provisions, which shall remain in full force and effect.

10.10 Notices. All notices, requests, demands, consents, and other communications under this Agreement ("Notices") shall be delivered through Service Provider's online platform (www.grenty.us).
